

I oppose loosening the rules designed to promote and protect diversity of media ownership. These rules were adopted to ensure that the public would receive a diverse range of viewpoints from the media, and not simply the opinions of a handful of media conglomerates.

As a Communications student, I want to ensure that I have all of the job opportunities available to me when I graduate from Temple University. I am afraid that with media consolidation it will be increasingly difficult to obtain a position with a media organization. Please do not let media consolidation extinguish the diversity of voices in the media.
